

Passages to create and answer three types of questions:

Chapter 9: "At Christmas dinner..." to "Didn't either."

Chapter 9: "Later when I was supposed..." to the end of Chapter 9.

Chapter 10: "Our father didn't do anything." to "You'd be surprised," said Miss Maudie.
"There's life in him yet."

Chapter 10: "Tim Johnson reached the side street..." to "You haven't forgot much, Mr. Finch.
They say it never leaves you."

Chapter 10: "Miss Maudie grinned wickedly" to the end of Chapter 10

Chapter 11: "Jem and I hated her..." to "bravest man who ever lived..."

Chapter 11: "I hated him for that..." to "Atticus smiled grimly."

Chapter 11: "Atticus," I said one evening, "what exactly is a nigger-lover?" to "She has enough troubles of her own."

Chapter 11: "Mrs. Dubose was a morphine addict," said Atticus to the end of Chapter 11.